

Community Cop Connection Agreement

Youth do respect and will continue to respect police officers.

Police do respect and will continue to respect youth.

Youth will continue to work to build relationships with police.

Police will continue to work to build relationships with youth.

Youth and Police will work to encourage their peers to turn away from stereotypes and judge each youth and police officer as an individual.

Youth will not support destructive behavior in their community.

Police acknowledge that youth are sons and daughters, their lives can be really difficult, and they deserve support and respect.

Youth acknowledge that police have families that they want to get home to, their job can be really difficult, and they deserve support and respect.